Partners with Paws will host a Santa Paws fundraiser as its last event of the season.

It will be a two-day event, the first on Saturday, November 27 at 11 a.m. and the second on Sunday, November 28 at 3 p.m. It will happen at Sweet Caroline's Ice Cream and Treats in Breslau.

Sharlene Mohlman is a volunteer with the charity, and she said attendees would get to see Samson the Santa Paw do lots of tricks.

"He is going to display all the different tasks he has learned over the year. Of course, his typical sit and stay and get food thrown at him. he will do things like mathematics as well."

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet Santa Paws, the service dog. In addition, they will get to see all the fantastic things that service dogs are capable of.

"We will be reading one of the stories from the book that discusses all the wonderful things these labs can do," Mohlman said.

Not only will attendees get to enjoy this fantastic and interactive event they will also be able to enjoy a sugary treat from Sweet Caroline's.

The event does have limited space, so attendees will need to purchase a ticket.

Santa Paws will also be taking professional pictures with those who wish to want one.

Partners with Paws is a local charity that supports local patrons with disabilities to have a highly trained service dog.
